FACE THE FACTS

VERNON HIGH SCHOOL
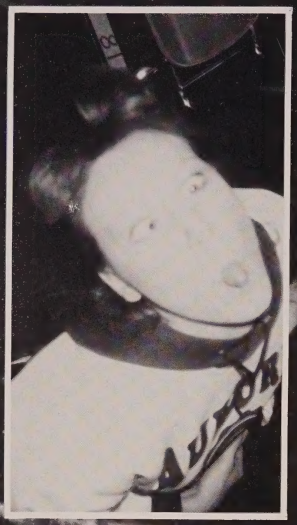
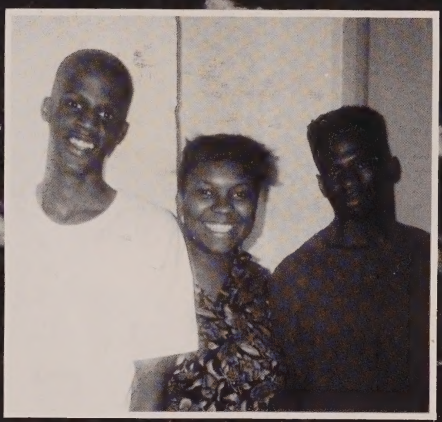
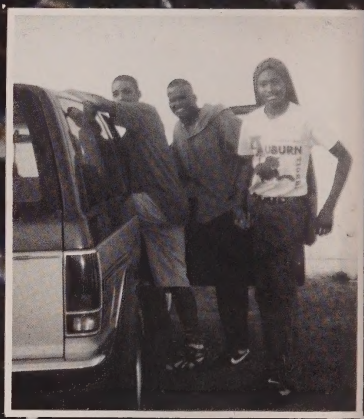
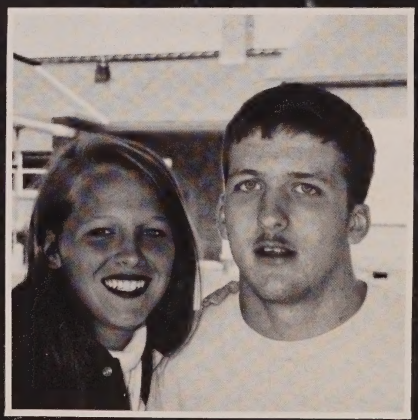
1993-1994
JACKET
BUZZ
VOLUME 46

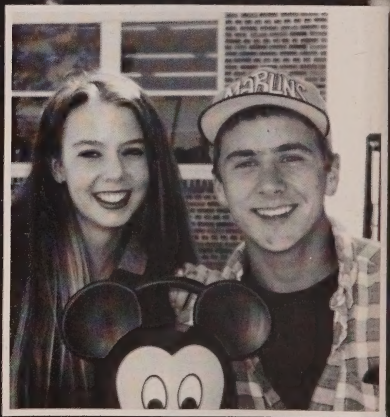


Let's face it, the students and teachers at V.H.S. know how to have a blast. As you will see, there is definitely never a dull moment. The students are always doing something to catch the eyes of others in the academic field or just for fun. But out of all lessons taught and all lessons learned, the biggest one of all is that we just have to Face The Facts — V.H.S. is great and so are we!





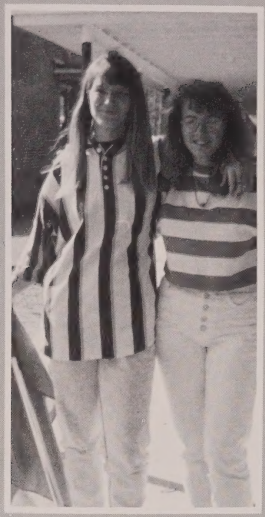




(Top to bottom left to right) Chat is . . . . well we don't know what she's doing. Share and share alike Amanda. Kristy Gainey says, "Let's face it, I stay confused." Tina Palmore faces the facts and goes for two. You can just look at these guys and tell they're up to no good. Misty and Shawn seem to be pretty satisfied with their relationship. Come on let's face it Robin and W.O., aren't we a little old for Mickey?

FACE THE FACTS . . .

STUDENT LIFE



Student life at Vernon is filled with the faces we see each day. Often there are times when we must break loose from the routine of class and show the crazy side of our personalities. Craziness is rampant at VHS, as is illustrated on this page.

FACE IT . . .

WE'RE

CRAZY!!!

STUDENT SURVEY

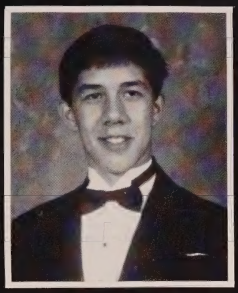
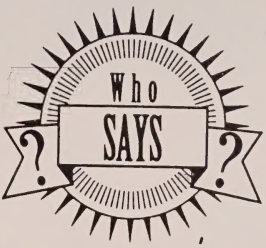
(Right) Hayward says about himself, "Uh ... the Cats Eye. Nah, by then I'll be the youngest millionnaire in Washington County."



Students were asked about popular senior Hayward Dykes: "Where do you think Hayward will be in the year 2000?" Responses are at left.

(At left) Ms. Lloyd says, "I think Hayward will be Department Chair at M.I.T."

(At right) "He'll soon be in a casket, or maybe just an insane asylum!" says Terra Davis.

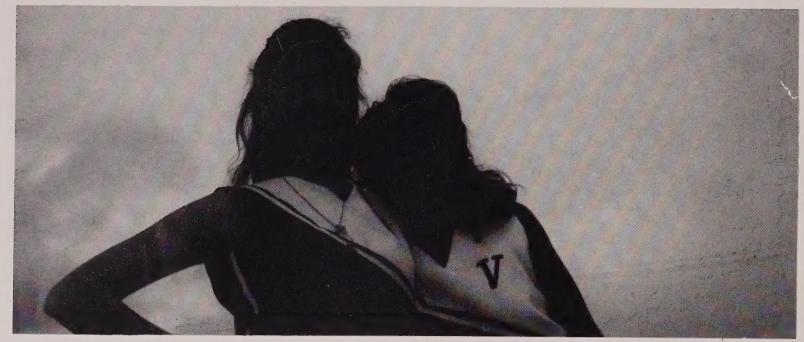


Did you find a picture of yourself, Hayward?

FACE THE FACTS . . .

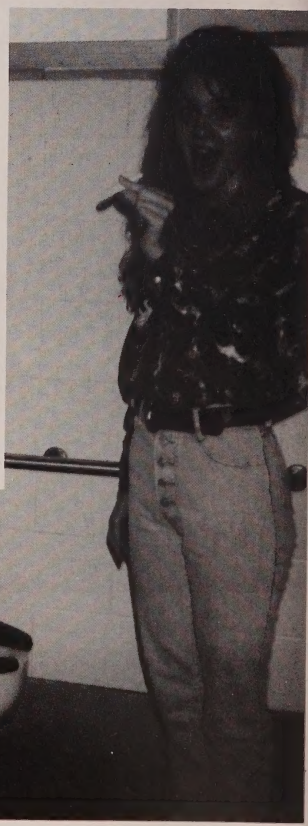
(Clockwise, starting above) Faces at VHS are often caught with this expression. Just ask Wadzeeh, Barry, Tifford, and Ivan. Everyone knows to face foward, except Tina! "Lindy, I know you ain't leaning on my truck!" Jason seems to be thinking. Luciana, why are you doing the wave? Your friends aren't joining you. Dawn, Eve, Tasha, and Miriam tell us to face the fact that this friendship is forever!

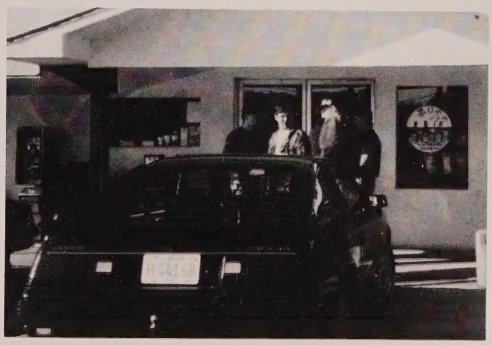
FRIENDS ARE FOREVER!

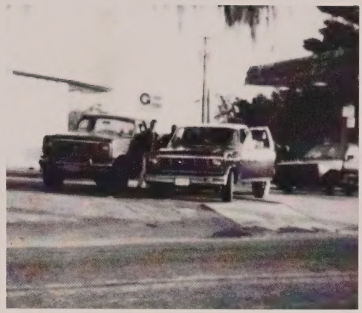


Above, Amanda Kent & Kattie Nickerson say, "Hugs, not drugs!" Top right, Jason Brande and Travis Riley say, "Boy, looka heah!" At right, Tony Holley in "seek and destroy" mode. Below, an after-lunch soccer game near the band room. Bottom left, Shannon Harris asks, "It goes how fast?!" Bottom right, Carrie Carter! I thought you quit! She's caught with what sort of looks like a cigarette in the infamous girls' bathroom.

FACE THE FACTS







(Top to bottom, left to right) Gloria Pettis says, "Don't hate me because I'm beautiful." Reggie Worthington yells, "I told you, you missed a spot!" The GOCO is another popular hangout. "But, I need that A, Mrs. Cook!" explains Heather Allen. "I'd like to see you punch me in the mouth! Owwww!" says this freshman. "Don't try to hide! I see you over there!" exclaims Madeline Brown. "It's too nice a day to do classwork", explains Will Crawford. "Don't you even, girlfriend!" Tina Palmore thinks to herself.

HOMECOMING '93

From the class rivalry to the pep rally, this year's homecoming was totally original. Rivalry between the classes has escalated the past few years and the senior class float (a huge egg) symbolized our extracurricular battles. Trucks full of red helmeted seniors patrolled Vernon daring underclassmen to come out and play.

More traditional competitions took place this week including Silly Olympics, pudding eating, best legs, ugliest feet, the pickle barrel, tug of war, volleyball, and dress up days.

In the Mr. Jacket Contest, the Senior contenders were Steven Bell & Tony Holley; Juniors were Ryan Brock, Doyle Guy, & Freddie Kolmetz; Sophomores were Melvin Douglas, Larry McDonald, & Reggie Worthington; and Freshmen were Jason Coatney, Chad Joyner, & Will Spence. Winning third place was Chad Joyner; second place — Freddie Kolmetz; and the 1993 Mr. Jacket was Doyle Guy.

Juniors won the spirit stick, and the "Wolverines" became the class mascot for some seniors as it is the only animal that soils its own nest (go figure). The week was a blast!

DARE TO BE different

"Skank" (Jamie Spivey) is brought into the pep rally. Chat rides the parade in style. Sophomores Lynette Porter, Lisa Blankenship, Crystal Brande, Shasta Brock, Kristie Taylor, Barry Harper, Will Crawford, and Joan Miller on Hillbilly Day.

THE GAME

As with years before, the game once again ended homecoming week for another year. The defeat of the Jackets came with a hard fought battle by all of the players. The Jackets held the Blue Devils to make the score 00-00 for the first three quarters. Because of slight injuries, the Jackets allowed Bonifay fourteen points. Matt Riley was taken out of the game with a twisted ankle and Jason Brande with a few fractured ribs. The game ended with a score of 0-14, putting the Blue Devils on top.

SPRING FESTIVAL OF THE ARTS

The Spring Festival of the Arts took place on the evening of Tuesday, May 17, 1994. Participating were the drama class, band, and art classes. The drama class performed Charlotte's Web, proving what a talented cast Mr. Pennington had this year. The band provided musical entertainment for the evening, and the artwork from Mr. Adams' art classes was on display.

INTERCLUB COUNCIL BANQUET

The Interclub Council Banquet was held Monday, May 23 in the Vernon High School cafeteria. Several organizations including FFA, FHA, Student Council, JROTC, FBLA, Beta Club, and Quill & Scroll took part, and each person attending brought a covered dish. Student officers from each club presided over the ceremonies and awarded members for their service during 1993-94.

Top, FBLA president Tammery Troublefield awards members Pammery Troublefield and Alite Jackson. Center left, Cindy, Lindy, and Alecia are first in line for FOOD. Center right, FFA officers Matt Riley, Jeff Riley, Robin Walsingham, Natalie Haddock, and Jennifer Riley hand out awards, including some to members Olen Pettis and Jason Rogers. BAND BANQUET

The annual Band Banquet took place Tuesday night, May 24 in the VHS cafeteria. Many trophies and awards were conferred upon band members, and they, their families, and friends enjoyed the entire evening. Band director James Seaboch and his wife Gail (who has been in charge of the flag corps for several years now) are an integral part not only of the Vernon High School band program, but also of the entire Vernon school system.

PROM '94

Juniors Natasha Pettis, Doyle Guy, Kattie Nickerson, Amanda Kent, and Amanda's date seem to be having a great prom. Seniors Jason Brande, Jeanne Block, and Andy Noda all seem to have a common question: Hayward's date is here, but where's Hayward?

SENIOR TRIP

The seniors left on April 21 for Atlanta, Georgia and a most memorable senior trip. The students and chaperones toured Underground Atlanta, where they encountered "Freaknic." They also toured the World of Coca Cola, and ended up having to reschedule their trip to Six Flags theme park. The senior class returned home on the 23, tired but with loads of memories.

GRADUATION '94

The graduating class of 1994 held baccalaureate services on Sunday, May 29 in the gym. Lindy Tyre and Jennifer Riley gave the invocation, and the address was given by Reverend Price Wilson, with the benediction by Joe Marshall, class vice-president.

Commencement was held Tuesday, May 31, 1994 in the gym as well. Tony Holley, class salutatorian, gave the invocation, and Alecia Land, class president, presented her welcome speech. Valedictorian of the class, Heather Patterson, gave the graduation address, which was followed by an announcement of honors, awards, and scholarships by Principal Ruth McCrary. After this, Tenille Brock and Michael Dalton sang the class song, "A Bad Goodbye," which brought many a tear to the eyes of class members. Superintendent Bill Williams and Mrs. McCrary then awarded diplomas to the seniors, after which the alma mater was sung, and the new graduates marched out to Pomp and Circumstance.

Over a third of the class graduated with honors and high honors. The ten students graduating with honors were Cindy Tyre, Donna Crawford, Carrie Carter, Chastity Reno, Lataskie Peterson, Warren Walsingham, Carol Rogers, Pammery Troublefield, Jamie Spivey, and Danita Cheverie.

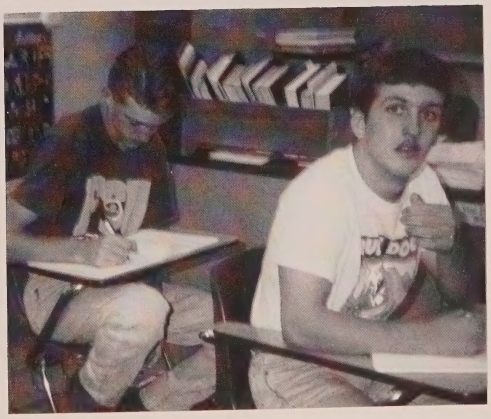
ACADEMICS



FACE THE FACTS

At Vernon High School, academics are important. Students and teachers set high goals and strive to meet them; however, let's face facts — it isn't all work and no fun. For example, as part of Mrs. Bush's English IV honors class, seniors dressed up as characters from Chaucer's Canterbury Tales and had a Canterbury feast.

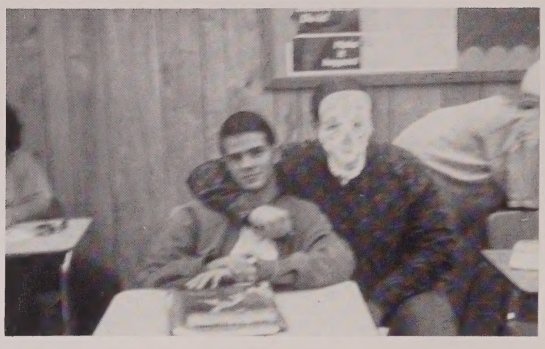
LAW ED CLASS

The sixth period Law Education class was instructed by Mrs. Mary Whitehurst. This class lasts one semester. Many guest speakers came throughout the semester to talk to the students about the law and about criminal behavior and punishment. Among those were Officer James Ellis and Judge Allen Register. This was an interesting class and the students learned a lot about the law and how it works. At left is Judge Allen Register and above is Officer James Ellis.

SPANISH



Spanish is one of the two foreign language classes offered at V.H.S. It involves much hard work, but there are days that the students can take a break from usual classwork. Above, for example, is Jamie Pelfrey modeling his Halloween Spanish mask while Ryan poses for the picture, trying not to laugh at Jamie.

CLOTHING

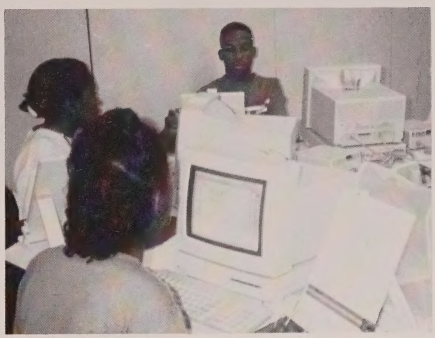
THE MACINTOSH AND TECH LABS



The new Mac lab has been very enjoyable for the V.H.S. students and teachers. The labs are used for many things such as typing reports and doing projects. In the Summer of '93 a special computer class was held in the Mac Lab. Many students attended and enjoyed this. Above are students typing L.M.S. reports.

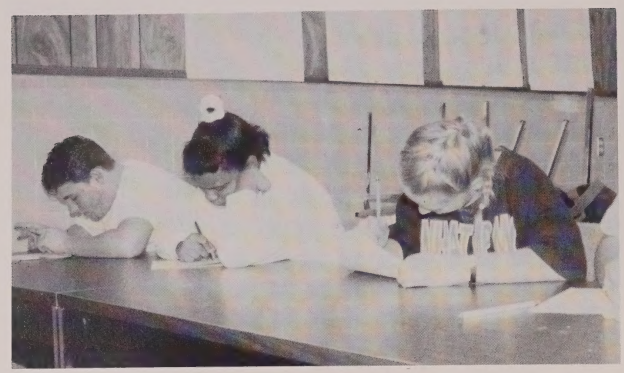
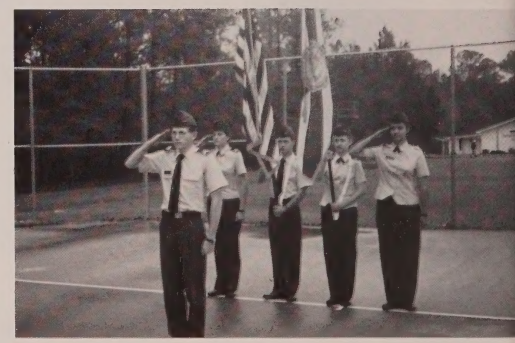
The Technology Lab, also new, is used for experiments done by science classes. For example, above is Mr. Brock's fourth period Physics class conducting experiments. From left to right, Dana Sowers is trying to figure his experiment out while Travis Hall observes and Tony Becraft is taking the temperature of the material in his cup.

JUNIOR R.O.T.C.



This is the first year that Vernon High School has had a Junior R.O.T.C. program. It has been a new and exciting experience for everyone. Top left are Shawn Rhodes, Tina Palmore, and Rosemary Hill working on their assignment. Top right is the sixth period class standing at attention. Right, W.O. Puckett and Delisha Bell salute each other. Far right, these students are moving double time. As you can tell there is plenty of hard work and discipline involved in the R.O.T.C. program, taught by MAJ. Kuneman and SSGT Rich.

COLOR GUARD



The Color Guard is a part of R.O.T.C. This is an exciting part of the program and a lot of work goes into this. Top left and bottom right are the Color Guard members at attention. From left to right: Heather Collins, Jason Paridon, Jessinta Bartimus, Natalie Rodriquez, and (in front) Michael Saturley. Top right, they are getting lined up to begin their drill.

BOYS' VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Boys' Varsity Basketball Team, coached by Aaron Todd, played great the entire season this year. Not only did the team win most of their ball games, but they also went all the way to Regionals, played in Panama City, where we won one game to advance but lost the final game. Even though we didn't win Regionals, we went home feeling good about the year of Basketball '94.

B-TEAM GIRLS

BASKETBALL

The B-team girls had a rough season, but they played hard and learned what basketball was all about. For some, it was their first year to play basketball. Even though this was a young team they came through with a positive attitude and skills that will help them in the future. With this they will be an asset to the Varsity team in the years to come.

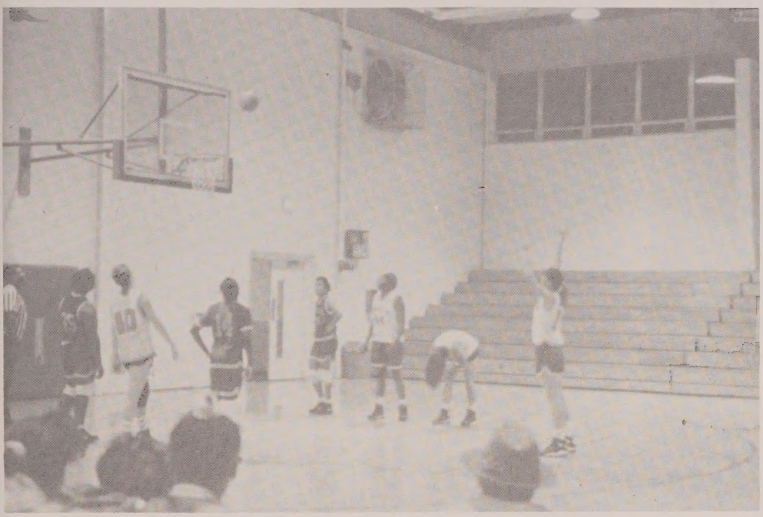
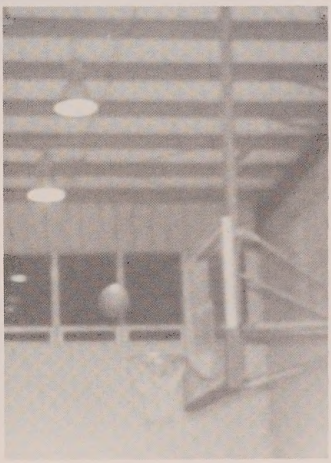
VARSITY GIRLS' BASKETBALL



The Varsity Girls' Basketball Team had a pretty exciting year. The Lady Yellow Jackets were coached by Mrs. Kim Register, who made sure the girls put in lots of practice time nearly every afternoon that they didn't have a game. Each member was an important asset to the overall team effort, and several of the girls set personal records for most points, most rebounds, etc. in various games throughout the season. Senior Terra Davis will be missed next year, but the other girls will be returning with the experience needed to boost the Lady Jackets to a number one position.



At top, Natasha Pettis puts the ball up from the free throw line for another point. Above left, Amanda Pettis leaps above the opposing team's players for a two-point jumper. VARSITY SOFTBALL

This year the Vernon High School Lady Jackets' Softball Team entered the world of fast-pitch softball. After much practice and hard work, they began their season with lots of anticipation and very little intimidation, feeling prepared to do battle with any team around. They pulled together and produced the best softball results in years. Not only did they finish their season with ten wins and only five losses, but they were also Conference Champs and runner-up at the District competition.

VARSITY

This year the Vernon High School Yellow Jackets' Varsity Baseball Team finished the season with a record of 6-16. They had a tough season, but continued to play hard to the end. Coach Alford says, "Baseball is a very simple game. When you are on defense there are nine of you against one of them; when you are on offense there are nine of them against you."

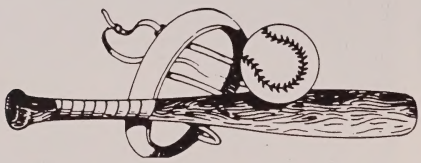
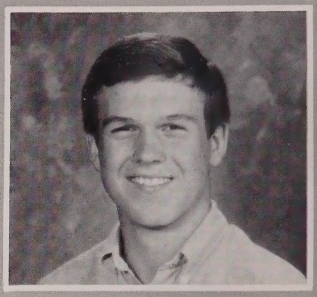
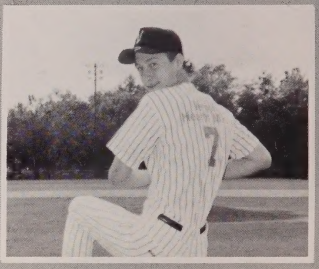
B-TEAM BASEBALL

The VHS B-team has worked very hard this year, and the players have learned the real meaning of baseball. They have also learned how to work as a team with the fabulous pitching ability of players, including Matt Hall, and with the strategic defensive work performed by the whole team. Because of these factors, they finished with a great year. Several players will likely be moving up to varsity next season and will take with them the basics they learned as junior varsity players under the coaching of Don Brown.





"As a whole, we had a great season. I had a lot of fun and I think the other guys did, too." — Will Crawford, sophomore



"The season was okay, even though we did not play to the best of our abilities. I think we will do better in the near future." — Matt Hall, freshman

Scott Duke
Second Team All-State

Number 55 was a big asset to the Vernon Yellow Jacket Football Team. This jersey was worn by Scott Duke, a 6'4" senior and an excellent athlete. Scott was named second team all-state, in competition with many other schools and many other outstanding football players. We appreciate Scott's dedication to not only the football team, but also to the Yellow Jacket Baseball Team as the starting pitcher. Not many students are honored with this award. We will miss Scott's face around school and his talent on the field. (Left) Scott's senior football picture. Top, It looks as though Scott has been playing a long time. FBLA

The FBLA has been busy this year. They have participated in community projects, such as parties for the Kindergarten and first grade classes at Halloween, Christmas, and Valentine's Day. They have sold candy as a fundraiser and participated in the InterClub Council's Trick or Treat Street. The FBLA did very well at the District meeting, having seven members to place and sending Shannon Bushong to the State meeting in Accounting II. Mrs. Dawson welcomes new and old members to come back and join next year.

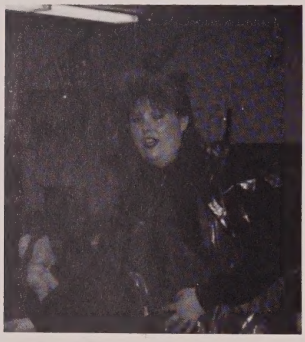
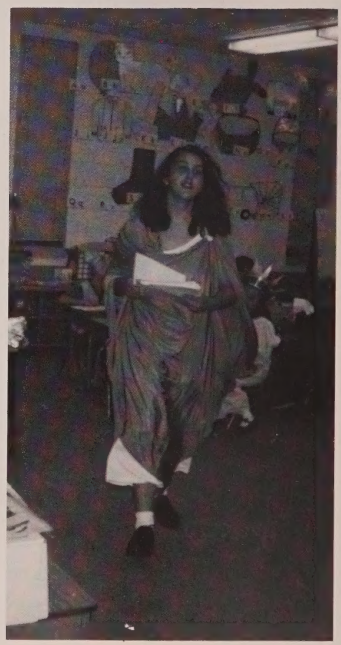
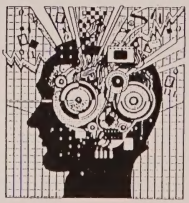
FUTURE EDUCATORS OF AMERICA

Future Educators of America (FEA) is a club for aspiring teachers. Miss Lloyd and Mrs. Smith sponsored the club and made sure there was a full roster of activities for the members. The FEA began the school year with a Halloween party for the first grade. Members dressed in costumes and served goodies. Student members also had the opportunity to go to the elementary school and "shadow" teachers there. In December the club had a party for Headstart, and gave gifts to the children. Other activities included their annual blood drive and the Math Olympiad. FEA members regularly recognized teachers and made them feel special, especially during American Teachers Week, when the club planned something for each day to show gratitude to the faculty at Vernon High School.







QUILL

Being a Quill and Scroll member isn't as simple as it may sound. In order to be a part of this group, students must be in the top 1/3 of their class and must have taken a journalism class. This is only a club for juniors and seniors, that very few are qualified enough to become a part of. Members: (left to right top to bottom) Kelly Yohn, Amy Watkins, Anthony Becraft, Herrika Lovett (vice president), Lindy Tyre, Tammy Bonner (sectretary), Mrs. Sally Bush (sponsor), Carrie Carter (chairman of communications commitee), Kattie Nickerson, Alecia Land (president), Donna Crawford (teasurer) and Cindy Tyre (reporter).

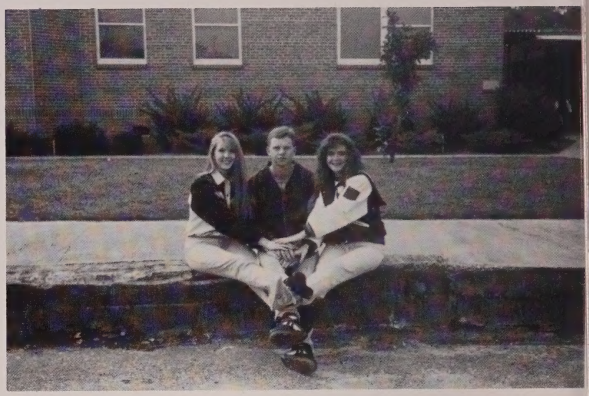
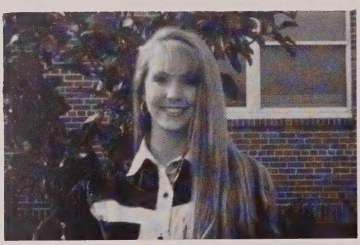
SENIOR OFFICERS

Having experienced officers that know what they are doing is the key to a great Senior year! They also have to be able to keep the class as a whole informed about things. The Senior Class picked three individuals to be their class officers for the 1993-94 school year: (left to right) Alecia Land — President, Joe Marshall — Vice-President, and Lindy Tyre — Secratary and Treasurer. (Left) Alecia Land is an honor roll student at Vernon High School. She is also employed at the very well-known Dixie Dandy. (Middle) Joe Marshall is also a top student at V.H.S. and plays on the varsity Yellow Jacket baseball team. And guess what? Joe is also employed at the Dixie Dandy. (Right) Lindy Tyre, another one of Vernon's finest students, is a member of several clubs and is a great leader among her peers.





SENIOR SPONSORS

She is extremely outgoing and is well liked by her fellow freshmen. Arian Andrews is very popular among his peers. His debonair personality keeps him in the spotlight. Congratulations guys and gals!

CLASS OFFICERS

ADMINISTRATION AND STAFF

Our administration is what keeps this school going. Without them, VHS would not be quite what it is today. This was Mrs. McCrary's last year as principal; she will be taking a position at the county office next school year, and will definitely be missed. Assistant principal, Mr. Howard Riley, will be principal starting the 1994-95 school term. The administration and staff all work well together, which helps make each school day run smoothly.

(Right) Principal, Ruth McCrary. Mrs. McCrary has accomplished quite a bit since joining us at VHS. With her help and guidance, Vernon High School has not one, but three, computer labs — an Apple IIe lab, an IBM lab, and a Macintosh lab.

(Right) Assistant Principal, Howard Riley. He is a great asset to VHS, especially in the discipline department, yet is popular with the students, too. His duties are many and varied, and should prepare him for stepping into his new position next year. (Far Right) Guidance Counselor, Willie Mae Cook. We appreciate all of her helpful advice with scholarships, ACTs, and general information.

Teacher of the Year:

Mrs. Mary Whitehurst

Each year the faculty of Vernon High School chooses one teacher whom they think is the best on campus, a teacher who represents VHS as a whole. The 1994 Teacher of the Year is Mrs. Mary Whitehurst, who has been teaching for 23 years. Mrs. Whitehurst currently teaches American Gov't, Economics, American History, Psychology, and Law Ed, and has also taught other history courses and even Accounting. She is a teacher who cares deeply about her students and the school and community in general. She is an excellent choice as Teacher of the Year!

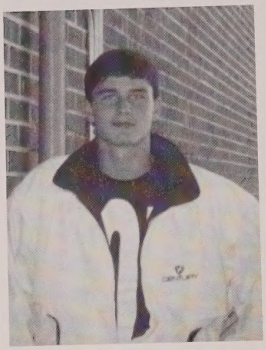
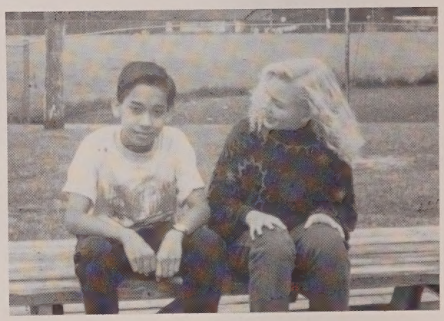
MIDDLE SCHOOL LIFE

What is . . .
Middle School?!





Student Life

PANTHERS!!

Middle school is the transitional stage between elementary school and high school. While the basic subjects are stressed, there are many other activites to do. And, of course, there is plenty of time for socializing. It is a time where girls start to wear make-up and begin to care about their appearances. The guys start worrying about what the girls think about them and try to figure out ways to impress them. So as you can tell middle school is where a lot of maturing is done. We are convinced that Vernon Middle School is the finest middle school around. The students and the teachers alike are interested in making school fun. There are all kinds of activities to get involved in to make the middle school years extremely rewarding.

Chat,

It seems like it was only yesterday that you were that cute, freckle-faced, chubby-cheeked, little Kindergardener. Through the years you have grown and matured into a beautiful and intelligent young lady. You're the most wonderful daughter and sister any family could ever wish for. We've shared laughter, tears, and the most important of all: love. We knew this time would come and that we would be proud of you when it got here. You have always strived to do your best and that's all that was ever asked of you. You are everthing we have ever anticipated you would be and more. We are proud of your many accomplishments, and are certain they will not end here. May god always keep you safe and bless you with a bright and happy future.
